

WILSON AND MARSHALL ELECTED IN GREAT LANDSLIDE

PORTSMOUTH GOES INTO DEMO-CRATIC COLUMN FOR PRESIDENTWorcester Carries City By
22--Reed Defeats Sulloway
--No Election for Senator-- County Ticket Gets Reduced Majority--Republicans Hold Representatives.

Portsmouth figured in the democratic landslide which prevailed all over the country on Tuesday, but not as badly as in most places, for while Wilson carried the city by 41 plurality the republicans gave Franklin Worcester a lead of 22 votes. It was a landslide against Congressman Sulloway, however, and Eugene B. Reed had a large majority.

Mayor D. W. Badger carried the city with a handsome vote, in fact leading the entire ticket for councilor, and the vote cast for Sperry Locke in the twenty-fourth senatorial district resulted in the choice for senator going to the legislature, as under the law the candidate must have a majority.

Colonel Pender polled a fine vote, 889, or 239 over Parsons, the democratic candidate, who was second on the ticket. Sperry Locke surprised everybody by polling a vote of 515.

The county ticket is all safe in this city at least, but the vote was much lower than former years. All of the republican candidates on the county ticket were cut badly and they will go out of the city with but a little over 200 majority.

The republicans elected their representatives in all of the wards with the exception of ward three, which of course is democratic. In the other wards the majority fell below former years, but they are lucky to get through at all with the conditions that existed and the strong democratic vote being cast.

The vote here for the presidential electors was but 199 over that of four years ago, when 2263 was cast against 2362 this year.

The election was carried on without any disturbance of any sort, and while it was stated that money was being used, the efforts of detectives and watchers failed to find any evidence of this. In ward four David Urch hit on the scheme of making a photograph of all of the republicans seen talking in groups, and he had his hands full, and as soon as the gang discovered his efforts everybody wanted to pose for a picture.

The Bull Moose party were very active all over the city and they polled a very good vote, especially in ward two, for the head of their ticket. The head of the ticket in the city polled a vote of 570, but this dropped off very sharply after the vote for governor, Churchill getting 559. O. L. Frisbee only polled 265 for councilor and Locke 515. The county progressive vote fell off badly from the head of the ticket.

The vote of the progressives, however, was enough in this city and the same seems to be true all over the state, to give the democrats some of the offices which with a united party would have all been republican.

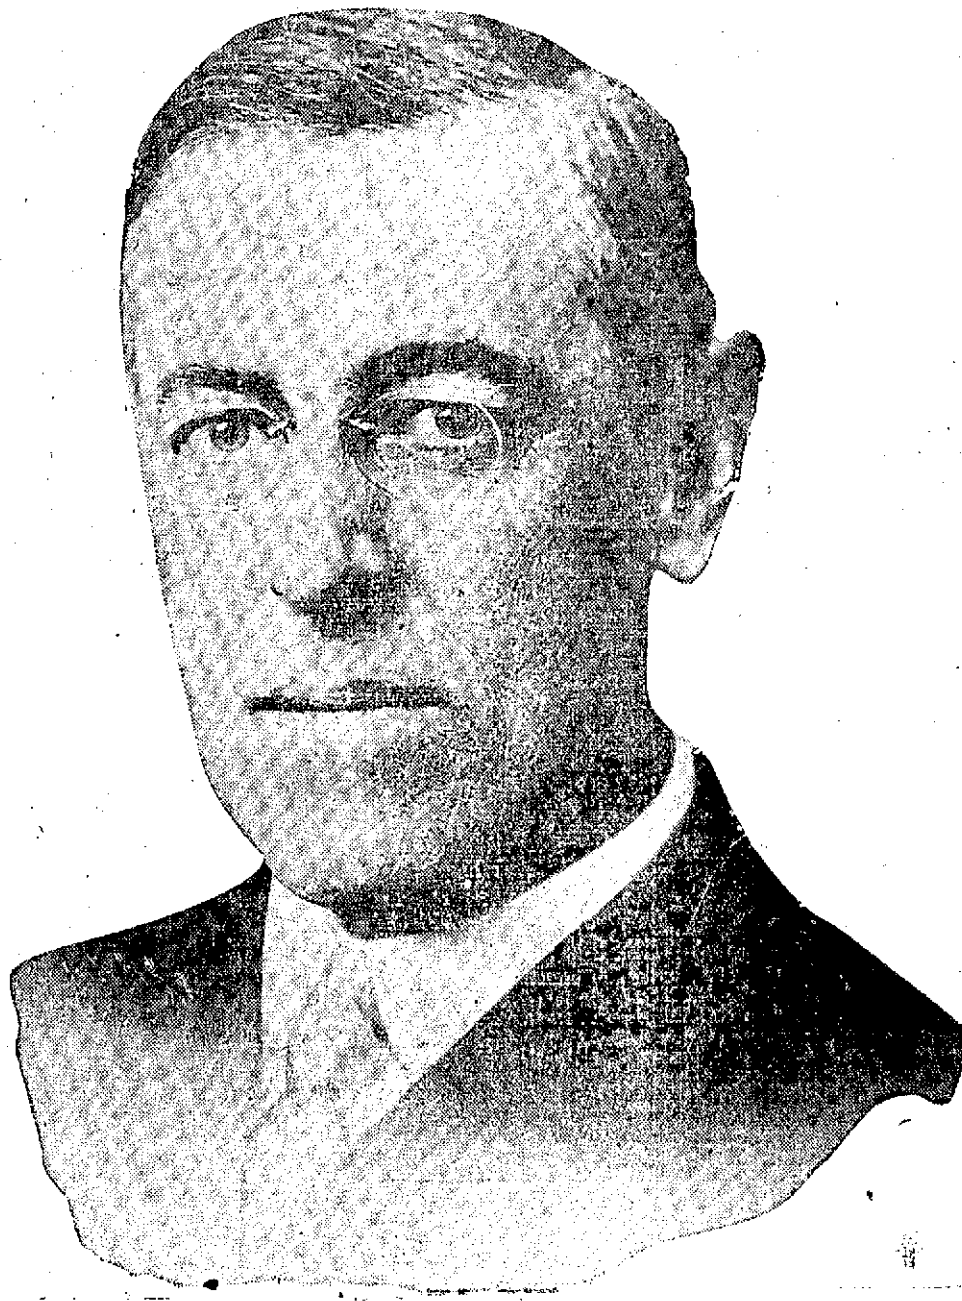

The size of the ticket made it extremely slow counting for the ward officials and it was well into the morning before they had completed their work. Ward five finished up first shortly after 9 o'clock, and ward four was second at 11 o'clock, while ward three had completed their work at midnight. Ward one got through at 3 o'clock and ward two at 7 o'clock this morning.

It was the first time that the ballot under the new law requiring a mark for everybody voted for was used and the result was apparent in all of the wards. There were comparatively few straight tickets.

The vote on the constitutional amendment was light, but all of the amendments were adopted.

There was great interest in the result of the election locally and the wires leading into the Chronicle office were busy from the early evening until long after midnight. The principal interest centered about the fight for state senator and it was 10 o'clock before this was finally obtainable.

There was very little expression of feeling shown after the returns were in. Even when it was apparent that Wilson had been elected without any doubt, the local democrats did not do any cheering, but the news was received without any display of feeling other than expressions of surprise over the size of the victory.

PRESIDENT-ELECT WOODROW WILSON.

WILSON HAS 395 ELECTORAL VOTES, ROOSEVELT 87
AND TAFT 8New Hampshire Close With No Election By People For Governor--Democrats Elect
Both Congressmen--Legislature Republican By Narrow Margin.

Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey was elected president of the United States in a democratic landslide which prevailed all over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Lakes to the Gulf. It was more of an avalanche than anything else for it landed Mr. Wilson high and dry into the president's chair, leaving President Taft and Ex-President Roosevelt to fight it out for second place, and at a late hour this morning it is in doubt.

Every indication also points to the fact that Mr. Wilson will have a democratic house and senate to support him and there seems new nothing in the way of the democrats putting into force all of their pet theories of govern-ment.

There was a wonderfully large vote cast in all of the states, but so great was the strength of the democratic vote that it was early conceded that Wilson would be the choice of the people. New York state, considered to be necessary to Wilson for his election, was never in doubt, and early in the evening Chairman Barnes of the republican state committee conceded the state to Wilson by 250,000, and his estimate was a modest one.

The progressive party polled a big vote through the country and while not equal to that of Taft in the east the Bull Moose was much more in evidence in the western states.

Maine, with but the presidential vote to count, having had their state election, was one of the first states in and it lined up with 7000 majority for Wilson, and with Roosevelt following in second place. Vermont, which has the same condition, was safe for Taft, but by a shaky margin.

In this state there is no choice for governor. At 2 o'clock this morning Franklin Worcester, the republican candidate, had a slight lead over Samuel D. Felker, the democratic candidate, and with Winston Churchill running a close third. At this time it is conceded that the democrats have elected the two members of Congress, Stevens in the first and Reed in the second district.

In this district Congressman Sulloway lost all the cities, Manchester giving Ex-Mayor Eugene B. Reed a handsome majority. At this hour, owing to the delay in counting the votes, the exact figures were not obtainable, but Reed is assured of the election. In the first district Congressman Currier went down before the landslide and Raymond Stevens has been elected.

Although the returns for representative have come slow the republicans at the present time have a slight lead on a joint ballot, but it is probable that the house and senate may be democratic. If this is so it will mean the election of a democratic senator to fill the place of Senator H. E. Burnham.

Massachusetts not only went for Wilson but also elected Governor Foss by a large majority and everything points to a democratic house and senate and a democratic senator.

At 2 o'clock this morning Ex-President Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Woodrow Wilson: "The American people by a great plurality have conferred upon you the highest honor in their gift. I congratulate you thereon. (Signed) THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

President Taft also concedes Wilson's election.

At 4:30 the vote in this state gave Wilson a slight lead, and it was as follows:

Wilson	14,802
Taft	14,762
Roosevelt	7,984

At that hour the republican state headquarters claimed that the republicans would control the house and senate by about 30 on a joint ballot.

At 5 o'clock this morning with several states to be heard from the electoral vote stood:

Wilson	395
Roosevelt	87
Taft	8
And 54 unaccounted.

LIVELY TIMES
ARE PROMISEDThe Old Time Charges of Election Bribery Are Revived.

All kinds of stories are in circulation about the city regarding charges of bribery and a lively time is promised. It is claimed that agents of the Good Government Association have made complaints against men of both parties whom it is claimed were seen to pass money the day before election. In spite of all the stories the police claim that the local election was free from any violation. The usual refreshment booths were not in evidence and quiet reigned in all the ward rooms throughout the day.

BAY STATE FIGURES.

Wilson Landed Handsomely in State of Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The democrats won the sixteen presidential electors in the national fight in Massachusetts and re-elected Governor Foss by the largest plurality in his three contests for the head of the state ticket.

The democratic landslide also extended to the second place off the state ticket. David J. Walsh of Fitchburg, was elected over Lieut. Governor Robert Luce of Somerville.

The republicans saved half of the congressional delegation of sixteen and maintained their ascendancy in both branches of the legislature, which means a republican United States senator as successor to W. Murray Crane. Of the 1102 election precincts in the state, returns had been received for President from 988 at 1:45 this morning. They gave for President: Roosevelt, 112,938; Taft, 125,982; Wilson, 147,082. The same gave for President in 1908, Bryan, 131,930; Taft, 213,435. Ninety precincts gave for Governor at that hour, Bird, 100,803; Foss, 166,222; Walker, 118,457. The vote for these precincts in 1911 was Foss 132,901, Frothingham, 169,029, majority, 13,128.

23D SEN. DISTRICT.

Indications Point That Kennedy, Democratic Candidate, Is Elected.

While the full returns for senator in the 23d district, which includes Ward Three of this city, have not yet been received, indications are that Matthew Kennedy of Newmarket, the democratic candidate, has defeated Charles H. Morang of Dover.

THE STATE

For governor—Worcester, 26,151; Felker, 25,597; Churchill, 11,231.

From the above it looks like a certainty that Wilson has carried the State and that the election of Worcester by the legislature is assured.

WORK WILL GO ON

New York, Nov. 6.—Gov. Johnson, the defeated candidate for vice-president, in conversation with Chairman Dixon, G. W. Perkins, said: "The work of the progressive party would go on unabated for the next four years." He left for Oyster Bay at 11 o'clock to confer with Colonel Roosevelt.

KITTERY POINT

What Is Happening In the Harbor Town.

Harry Roberts has resumed his duties as conductor on the Atlantic

Shore railroad after assisting in the dispatchers office for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Judson G. Irish are entertaining friends from out of town.

The new club house on the land of Wilbur Randall, Tenney's Hill is nearly completed.

The ancient dredger Saco, abandoned work in Pepperell's Cove on Tuesday and it is understood will soon be towed to Boston. Ever since her arrival last summer it has been painfully evident that the work here was much too strenuous for her venerable anatomy, and the excavation of the cove will not suffer noticeably on account of her departure.

Among the fleet of coasters leaving the lower harbor on Sunday was the schooner Hiram of Callas, Me., built at Biddeford in 1819, and with possibly two exceptions the oldest sailing vessel still in active service in American waters. Many notices and pictures of the sturdy old craft have appeared from time to time in the newspapers and in a recent interview her captain created a genuine sensation in maritime circles by declaring his intention of soon starting with her on a voyage to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thorne of Brockton, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blake.

The tug Mitchell Davis towed the schooner Durietta and Joanna to Marshall's coal wharf in York on Tuesday.

Luther Page of Brockton, Mass., a former resident of this place, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Noah E. Emery.

A concise account of President Taft's recent visit to the Sparhawk House, the home of Hon. Horace Mitchell has been prepared by town clerk Clarence Prince and will be preserved among the town records for the benefit of posterity.

Arrived.

Steamer Charles F. Mayer from Baltimore.

ADMITS HE IS DEFEATED

President Concedes Wilson's Election in Statement.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—President Taft at 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of Governor Wilson. He issued the following statement:

"The returns insure the election of Governor Wilson to the Presidency. This means an early change in the economic policy of the government in reference to the tariff. If this change can be made without halting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be."

"The vote for Mr. Roosevelt, the third party candidate, and for Mr. Debs the socialist candidate is a warning that their propaganda in favor of fundamental changes in our constitutional representative government has formidable support."

"While the experiment of a change in the tariff is being carried out by the democratic administration, it behooves the republicans to gather again to the party standard and pledge anew their faith in the party's principles and to organize again to defend the constitutional government handed down to us by our fathers."

We must make clear to the young men of the country who have been weaned away from sound principles of government by promises of reform impossible of accomplishment by mere legislation, that patriotism and common sense require them to return to a support of our own."

"Without compromising our principles, we must convince and win back former republicans and we must reinforce our ranks with living democrats."

"We favor every step of progress toward more perfect equality of opportunity and the ridding society of injustice. But we know that all progress worth making is possible with our present form of government and to sacrifice that which is of the highest value in our governmental structure for undefined and impossible reforms is the widest folly. We must face the danger with a clear knowledge of what it is."

"The republican party is equal to the task. It has had no nobler cause. Let us close ranks and march forward to do battle for the right and the true."

Schooner Helen W. Martin from Norfolk.

Schooner John Deaconwell, South Amboy for Kennabunkport.

Schooner Kit Karson South Amboy for Kennabunkport.

Schooner T. S. Sterling, Britton, New York for Moncton, N. B.

Schooner Andrew Nebinger, Bangor for New York.

The schooner Kit Karson was docked at Frisbee's wharf on Tuesday evening with a cargo of coal for The Eastern Dredging Co.

FIRE THREATENED YORK HEIGHTS

A fire which destroyed a large barn on the Rev. W. Sowell place at York Village, on Tuesday afternoon threatened for a time the entire section of York Heights. The fire started in the barn on the Coventry hall property and when discovered by a gang of Italian laborers working on a water main it had gained great headway and the sparks were soon flying about some of the best residence of York Heights. At one time there were nine houses on fire but with the aid of the Villagers and the Italians who did great work the fire was checked on the houses and confined to the barn which was burned to the ground. In the barn was stored about $800 worth of seasoned lumber which was ready for a new bungalow. There was also a lot of ten tons or more hay and farming implements. The total loss on the barn and contents will be about $2000.

ANNUAL CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

The entries are coming in fast for the annual Chrysanthemum Show of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society which opens in Horticultural Hall, Thursday, November 7, at noon and runs through Sunday the 10th. Many people who usually visit these fine exhibitions of the society are prone to wait until the last days of the show, not stopping to realize that in the early days of the show the view is even more wonderful. It is hoped this year that this fact will be evident, and as the exhibition will undoubtedly be one of the finest given in years, every lover of flowers in Boston should avail themselves of this privilege of seeing the finest grown spectacle of chrysanthemums, orchids, begonias, and other fall flowers.

The Massachusetts Fruit Growers Association will also make a great showing of the Big Red Apple, vying with the Western produce. In fact, the east is forging ahead rapidly in apple culture and this year shows a great advance.

Mr. J. K. L. M. Farquhar, the chairman of the awards and prizes committee and the newly elected President of the Society of American Florists, has in his usually energetic manner arranged for a very artistic arrangement of the beautiful flowers, and the society intends to make this the show of the year. On Thursday the doors will be open between 10 and 12 p. m., on Friday and Saturday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., and on Sunday from 2 to 10 p. m. Concerts afternoon and evening.

PLUMER-JONES

The marriage of Albert C. Plumer of this city and Mrs. Mary A. Jones of Dover took place in this city on Tuesday, November 5, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Edwin P. Moulton pastor of the Pearl Street Free Will Baptist church.

ANOTHER HERO OF THE SEA

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 5—Another hero of the sea was born, it developed today when the Norwegian steamer Noruga and the Norwegian sailing ship Glenelg met in disastrous collision at sea last Friday.

The Noruga arrived last night in a sinking condition in tow of the revenue cutter Onondaga, and is preparing to dock. The man to whom credit is given is the wireless operator of the Noruga who modestly declined to give his name and whose desire to avoid notoriety was respected by Capt. Hansen.

When the crew desired to desert the stricken vessel the operator refused to leave his post and continued to flash his appeals for help. He finally succeeded in raising both shore stations and vessels of the Atlantic fleet. The rescue of the vessels were accomplished as they were about to founder.

The Noruga will be repaired at the Newport News shipyard, where her 11 passengers, including eight women, and her freight will be transferred to the steamship Mexicana, which has been awaiting her arrival. The passengers were on board the Onondaga.

The Glenelg is being slowly towed up the coast today for the Virginia capes by a wrecking tug and the navy tug Sonoma.

The United States battleship Minnesota, which had been standing by, is proceeding to rejoin the Atlantic fleet on the southern drill grounds. The weather today cleared and the sea materially subsided, making the work of towing in the Glenelg less hazardous than when it was first undertaken.

SHORT TALKS ON ADVERTISING

The Science of Advertising

BY EDWARD W. YOUNG

Talk No. 1.

Advertising might be concisely defined as the Science of Practical Publicity Which Brings Together With Mutual Benefit, Producer and stood however that such a definition would cover completely the broad scope of advertising for it is in one sentence almost an impossibility to produce an explanation which would Nor would it be possible in many sentences to do this. However for a basis of understandable explanation the foregoing definition will serve its purpose.

There are those who will question the word science as connected with wide awake, aggressive manufacturers and business men throughout the country are beginning to realize that the force which brings new articles into demand, creates sales and increases business, is advertising, and it is the advertising which is produced by trained minds with a knowledge of the human needs, inclinations and desires that bring about this state of affairs. More and more the business world is demanding men, real men and men with trained minds. They want men who are capable of doing big things, who demands are parallel in the advertising field; those who spend fortunes are demanding advertising men who are capable of doing big things, scientific men if you will. They believe that business building ability is a science.

Modern times have brought into the field men who have the ability to create advertising which produces certain results and the chances of failure has been reduced to a minimum. Results bringing publicity is now produced by men who have made a study of the thousand and one absorbing branches of the work, but necessarily the personal of the work not necessarily the personal of books but the more difficult analysis of human nature without which knowledge the advertising writer is badly handicapped. The advertising man delves into ways to influence you and me to buy, he studies our needs, appeals to our senses and in a large percentage of cases, influences us to buy because he is the possessor of the knowledge previously mentioned. Therefore who shall not say that advertising in all its essentials is not an art or better still a science. The next talk we shall publish on this important subject will be on the question of Practical Publicity.

MONTHLY MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Education held on Tuesday evening there was but little out of the ordinary routine business to be acted upon.

The question of a normal school and what the city would offer to the state in the way of a building and grounds was discussed and finally laid on the table.

The question of the need of a new school building was also under consideration and Supt. Pringle stated that the Farrington district was overcrowded, the Whipple and Casor school had all but twenty five seats taken and there was a constant increase in the number of scholars.

There was no action taken on the matter at this time.

The usual reports of the superintendent and this included the transient officer was made and accepted.

Bond Information

A prominent professional man asked us the other day the difference between stocks and bonds. We explained to him that a stockholder is a partner and a bondholder a secured creditor.

Like thousands of other busy people, this man was so engrossed in earning money that he had not taken time to learn the simplest facts about its investment. He certainly was not sufficiently informed to warrant him in investing his money on his own responsibility.

The representative American Bond House is performing a notable public service in educating the people of this country in the principles and practice of conservative investment.

Every investor and prospective investor will be benefited by a study of the investment literature issued by the House of E. H. Rollins & Sons.

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder exceeds others in leavening power, in purity and wholesomeness, and is used generally in families, exclusively in the most celebrated hotels and restaurants, by the United States Army and Navy, and wherever the best and finest food is required. Teachers of cooking schools and lecturers upon culinary matters use and recommend the Royal.

Royal is the only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It is admittedly the best and most healthful baking powder made.

When you know what is best, please ask for it.

BULGARIANS CUT OFF WATER SUPPLY

Now Close On Constantinople--The Turks Making Their Last Stand.

The water supply of Constantinople was cut off today by a large Bulgarian force, which occupied Borkas at the end of the line of Tchatalja, from which point the aqueduct supplying the Turkish capital starts, according to a news agency despatch from Sofia. The Bulgarian troops have occupied the region between Tchatalja and Tchatalja, completely surrounding the Turkish force in that district. Another Bulgarian column formed of detachment from Drama and other captured towns, is marching on the sea-port of Kavala on the Aegean Sea. The Bulgarian troops near Tchatalja are preparing to resume their advance on Tchatalja. After four nights and four days of continuous fighting around Lule Burgas the Bulgarian soldiers were given two days' rest. This period expired today and the troops by this time are probably on the move. The concentration of the Serbian forces has been completed and that the advance on Monastir's third army is advancing westward toward Durazzo, and another division starting from Novipazar is marching to form a junction with the Bulgarians near Adrianople. The prospect that a considerable portion of the defeated Turkish army will be able to reform behind the lines of Tchatalja, the last fortifications before Constantinople, is not altogether excluded, but whether the Turks will be able to maintain there any serious resistance to the Bulgarian advance is a question which permits of doubt. In the absence of news of fighting from the Balkan theatre of war, Europe is giving attention to the diplomatic situation arising out of the hostilities. Although all the powers have not yet replied to Turkey's appeal for mediation it is known that it has now where received a very warm reception. A more definite request from Turkey to the powers to put an end to the war, which she is expected to make in view of the French reply to her first application, is likely to receive more consideration. Even then, however, the powers will be unable to overlook the demand of the allied Balkan nations that Turkey must deal directly with them. All that the powers will be able to do therefore, is to act as intermediaries in bringing the belligerents together. As to the future of the Balkans a very sharp line divides Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy from France, Russia and Great Britain. Public opinion in Great Britain, France and Russia argues that the allies should have the territory which they have conquered and Russia particularly has warned Turkey that conditions could only become worse should further disaster occur at Tchatalja. Austria-Hungary, which is the most directly interested of the great powers, being the nearest neighbor to the Balkan States will it is believed, not sit quietly by and see Bulgaria establish itself across her path to the Aegean Sea, in which direction her trade is extending while at the same time the Serbians spread to the Adriatic Sea. The Austrian Government points out that the Albanians are as much a nation as any of the allies and that Albania should be reserved for the Albanians. The first sign of dissension among the Balkan allies themselves comes in a despatch from Belgrade in which it is said that Serbians are beginning to declare "autonomous Albania," which was agreed upon before the war started, has now faded away. In the despatch the Mussulman Albanians who fought against the Serbian troops are blamed for the change in the Serbian attitude. Instead of the twenty-mile stretch of the Adriatic coast claimed by Serbia now wants sixty miles, and that in return Montenegro is to get more than her allotted third share of the district of Novipazar. The correspondent remarks significantly: "The Emperor of Russia will be taken as arbitrator between Serbia and Bulgaria in regard to these conquests which were not foreseen in the original agreement between the allies."

Cottolene

the economical cooking fat

Cottolene is well adapted for pastry-making because it produces light, delicate, flaky crust, and is much more wholesome than either butter or lard.

Cottolene is a vegetable product—contains no animal fat. It has more nutritive value, and food made with it digests more readily than if made from animal fat.

Cottolene is better and cheaper than lard, it costs about the price of lard. Two-thirds of a pound of Cottolene will do the work of a full pound of butter or lard.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

ROACH WOMAN HELD IN $1000 BAIL

Waiving examination to the charge of kidnapping little Edward Yates of 41 Lynde st., West End, Miss Louise M. Roach, age 24, of Portsmouth, N. H., was held in $1000 when arraigned Tuesday morning before Judge Barker, in the second session of the Central Municipal Court, Boston.

She shielded her face with her hands as she stood at the edge of the dock. The proceedings occupied about a minute's time and were carried on unknown to the prosecuting officer and the witnesses, who were waiting in the corridor, evidently believing that they would be sent for when the woman was arraigned.

Little Eddie Yates came to court accompanied by his parents this morning. Last night he had a good sleep. His parents permitted him to pose for photographers this morning and the lad tried to recall some of the events that happened while he was in Portsmouth with the "fine lady." He talked of a man named Bennie, whom the police suspect conducted the house in Portsmouth where the alleged kidnapper was employed as housekeeper.

Miss Roach made no statement to the court. She was dressed well and

A TRAVELING UNIVERSITY.

A section of the University of Minnesota will go "on tour" again this year. For one week last June the people of a number of small towns in Minnesota had the State university in their midst in the form of its most characteristic activities, and the eight communities benefited have unanimously asked that the experience be repeated this year.

"University Week" is the institution by which this is made possible. The project originated with President George B. Vincent, of the university of Minnesota, and at once gained the popular nickname of "President Vincent's Educational Circus," largely because of the touring method and the fact that it was at first planned to hold most of the sessions in tents.

The plan is something more than merely university extension. To all intents and purposes a representative portion of the university—faculty, students, and equipment—is temporarily detached and transferred to other parts of the state, thus actually extending the benefits of the state's costliest educational plant to a wide field than ever before. The plan is considered by the United States Bureau of Education an excellent device for bringing together for mutual profit a state university and the people who support it.

What "University Week" really is may be seen from a typical program. Each day of the six is devoted to some special topic, with lectures and demonstrations during the daytime and high-class entertainments at night. Thus: Monday is Business Men's Day. There are lectures on all kinds of topics interesting to business men, from marketing problems to fighting forest fires as well as a few talks of more general nature. In the evening there is a concert by the University Glee Club. Tuesday is Art and Literature Day, with lectures on libraries, children's books, women's clubs, civic betterment, the drama, and similar subjects. There is a reading hour in the afternoon, in charge of a trained educationist, and an industrial art exhibit. In the evening an illustrated lecture: "Art in Common Things."

Wednesday is Home Welfare Day. In the day sessions such problems as "The Human Beings of High School Age," "Why Babies Die," rational living, kindergarten, and industrial education are considered, while at night a prominent educator gives an illustrated lecture on "How Minnesota Educates Her Children." Thursday is Public Health Day, with appropriate lectures and exhibits. In the evening there is a dramatic recital of a modern play.

Friday is Farmers' Day, and live questions of farm policy are discussed by experts in agriculture. There is also an address on "The Social Possibilities of Rural Communities" by an educator who has made special studies in this field. In the evening professors from the university give a scientific demonstration of the gyroscope and liquid air. Saturday is Town and Country Day, with "Social Life in Town and Country" as the leading topic. In the evening the University Dramatic Club appears in Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice.

Genuine interest is aroused in the towns visited. In most instances the people take the visit of the university as the business of the week, and devote all their attention to it. Not only the townspeople, but farmers from outlying districts as well, attend the sessions. Boys' farming camps are organized in connection with the University Week, and always prove a popular feature. The university authorities and those who co-operate with them—State health boards and other agencies—are particularly careful to provide speakers who not only know their subject well, but are able to talk interestingly to a non-university audience. The expense of obtaining such men would be prohibitive but for an ingenious arrangement of circuits, whereby the travelling University Week is able to "play" six communities in the same neighborhood by interchanging days.

It is estimated that there are several ways in which this novel plan of extending the influence of a State university will have a direct effect: In the first place, it will make the work of the university well and favorably known where it has before been known only vaguely or even mistakenly; it will break down the already weakening barrier of educational exclusiveness; and more important still, it is one more link in the chain of rural betterment. It emphasizes an essential point in the present-day conception of rural life—that town and country are one community.

MEDICAL RESERVES

General Stokes Is Engaged in the Formation of a Corps.

Surgeon General Stokes of the navy is engaged in the formation of the Naval Medical Reserve Corps, the establishment of which was authorized in the naval appropriation act approved August 22. The new corps is expected to add much to the resources of the Naval Medical Corps in time of war.

It will give the navy the benefit of the advice in medical and surgical problems of prominent civilian physicians, hygienists and laboratory workers. Another great advantage is the popular interest it will arouse in the medical branch of the navy. At present the corps is short of members and the number of students at the naval medical school in this city is far below the number necessary to fill existing vacancies.

The corps will be composed of qualified civilian physicians and it is expected many prominent practitioners will be appointed. They will not be called on for active duty except in time of war or other emergency or for very short periods when it is desired to have them discuss questions of naval medical practice.

Same Pay as Regulars

When ordered into active service the members of the reserve corps will be subject to the same rules and regulations as the members of the regular medical corps. They will have the same pay and allowances, as regular officers of similar grade. They will not be required to wear a uniform except on active duty, but may wear the uniform at other times when its use is appropriate.

Heretofore the navy has been unable to take advantage of the knowledge, experience, and corporation, of surgeons and physicians outside of the regular medical corps. A reserve medical corps was provided for the army by the act of April 23, 1908, and a large number of prominent civilian physicians have been commissioned first lieutenants in that branch of the government service. Their successful employment in the army led to the legislation providing a similar corps in the navy.

Board of Instruction Defer Action Until State the Superintendent's Recommendation Is Heard

Regular meeting of the Board of Instruction held last night with the following members present:

Mayor Badger, Mrs. Bentfield, Messrs. Gooding, Foster, Mrs. Hewitt, Messrs. Hodgdon, Knight, McCarthy, Page, Thayer, Towle, and Mrs. Wood.

Records of the last meeting were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $1123.44 were read, passed, and ordered paid when properly approved.

For the First District Committee Mr. Gooding reported that the lowest bid they could get for the installation of the lights in the Farragut school would be about fifteen dollars in excess of the committee's estimate. Voted to accept the lowest offer and install the lights.

The report of the superintendent was read and accepted.

The superintendent reported that it had been necessary to employ an assistant in the Franklin school.

It was voted to loan unused seats and desks to the Hebrew school.

Voted to exchange old typewriters for new equipment.

The request of Mrs. Frederick Pickering for abatement of excess of High School tuition, above amount paid by the town for Albert Pickering of Newington, and to allow her son to attend the eighth grade without tuition as she is a tax payer in the city, was granted.

The advisability of urging the establishment of a normal school at Portsmouth was discussed and the matter laid on the table until the Board shall determine the State Superintendent's recommendation in the matter.

MAYOR SCANLON WILL SPEAK

At Business Men's Supper
at Loral Y. M. C. A.

The Business Men's Suppers that were so successfully conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association last year on Thursday nights are to be continued this year. The first supper will be held on Thursday evening, November 7. The speakers will be Hon. Michael A. Scanlon, the Mayor of Lawrence who will tell at first hand the story of the striking mill hands.

The committee has been fortunate in securing a strong group of speakers among them being, E. E. Ray, general superintendent of the Boston and Maine railroad, Dr. Edwin A. Meade, head of the World Peace Foundation, Mr. W. H. Seeley, Secretary of the New England Lumber Industrial Bureau, and President Martin of Boston University. From all indications the attendance at these suppers will be larger than last year.

ELECTION NOTES.

Some of the delays of one or two of the candidates was certainly childish.

The Herald telephones were kept busy all night supplying election returns to this entire section.

The local democrats are more than pleased.

A. C. Wiley, the popular secretary of the Warwick club, is the original Wilson democrat of Portsmouth and to say that he is pleased is not half true.

Premier Scenic Temple Programme

Program for Wednesday and Thursday.

"A Nation's Peril"

Two reel feature picture by the Pathe American Company. The strongest, most sensational, most thrilling picture ever produced. A gripping story of patriotism, love and intrigue, carried on before Uncle Sam's very eyes in one of the United States Artillery Forts showing the fourteen inch guns in action.

The submarine mine chart room, from which a battleship's tender bearing the spies of another nation, is blown to atoms. The mine explosion alone, hurling thousands of tons of water into a column ninety feet high and carrying the fragments of the shattered vessel makes this picture surpass all others. Don't miss it.

Rumors are rife that the conduct of certain master workmen during the campaign is to be investigated. It is charged that some of the third termers suggested that they would like to have their men vote the R. M. ticket. It is said that charges have been sent to the department.

Important Change.

It is hinted that an important change among the officers is planned.

What Will the Democrats Do?

What will the democrats do for the Portsmouth Navy Yard is now the topic of conversation.

Call issued.

Two patternmakers are wanted as the list has been exhausted.

Changes Among Officers.

Lt. P. J. Fletcher, to the Florida; 3d Lt. A. W. Atkins, detached to Florida, to the naval academy; Lt. W. W. Lawrence, to navy yard, Portsmouth; N. H.; Asst.-Surg. E. W.
